CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 10th April 2006

PC :

1. The suit which is filed for dissolution of a partnership firm and accounts, is now settled. The terms of settlement are drawn up. They are explained to each of the parties to the suit and interpreted in Marathi. They have signed the terms. So also their advocates have also signed.

2. The parties have agreed as per the terms that the business of the partnership can be carried on by defendant no.3 exclusively. So also, he would be entitled to all the assets including the immovable property mentioned in clauses 2 and 9 of the terms. The dispute is settled upon the plaintiff and defendants 1 and 2 receiving the amounts mentioned in clause no.4. The amounts having been already received, they have agreed to the suit being disposed off in terms of the consent terms. The partnership firm will now stand dissolved with effect from 31st March 2006 and the business of the firm will be carried on by defendant no.3. Parties are present in the Court. Consent terms taken on record and marked "X" for identification. Order in terms of consent terms.
